John Mowbray is celebrating his 50th year as a stamp dealer. Over five catalogues, he will share his reminiscences. Here is the final instalment.

The Fifth Decade

2005 - 2014

2005 was a significant year for Mowbrays, with the purchase of the Stirling & Co Ltd stock, literally 15 tons of stamps! Bruce Alexandre, one of NZ's foremost dealers had accumulated huge stocks in his Christchurch based Stirling & Co Ltd. Upon Bruce's untimely death, his family put the entire stock/business up for sale. Ten members of the New Zealand Stamp Dealers Assn, of which Bruce was a member and former President, were asked to submit offers on the stock. Each dealer was given one day to inspect the stock, housed in a three-storey building in Cashel Street, and submit their offer. An advantage for us was that I had two staff assist me whereas many tenderers had to do it on their own. There was no inventory list provided or any indication of value or indeed what part of the building held the best stock! The business had been closed, and no staff assistance or advice was available.

It really was a guessing game, and the requirement that the building be emptied in 7 days was perplexing. Knowing Bruce owned the building I asked his wife why the hurry? I want to sell the building she replied. Bingo! Our chance to make the best offer by including the building in our offer. It worked, and subsequently took Alan Jackson, David Smitham, who had worked for Bruce for 29 years and volunteered to assist, and Malcolm Westgarth 3 months to empty the building and ship 700 large cartons of stamps weighting 15 tonnes up to Otaki where we rented a warehouse just to house the stock.

The Stirling & Co Building, Christchurch

An example of the Stirling stock we had to value!

10 years on we have processed about 65% of the value and 40% of the cartons overall! Of all the deals I have done in my fifty years this was and continues to be the most extraordinary.

We still have about 300 unopened cartons of Stirling stock which of course included the Laurie Franks stock which in turn included the famous Wilcox Smith stock from Dunedin. Every carton we open is like Christmas; we just don't know what to expect apart from a very brief description provided by Alan and his team as they packed it. In October David Smitham shifted with his family to join us in Otaki where today he is a key staff member. As a footnote, in the Christchurch earthquake of 2010 the entire block of buildings was destroyed – had this occurred four years earlier it would have included the stock as well!

Jan Macdonald joined us August that year as our Stock Controller and Dispatch Officer and she was given a baptism of fire with the arrival of the Stirling stock. Amongst her early tasks was the shipping of 11 million NZ stamps (ex Stirling, Laurie Franks, and Wilcox Smith) to Apex stamps in the UK. This was, and still is, the largest shipment of stamps exported from NZ.

In Australia, Stanley Gibbons Australia (100% owned) had a record auction of A$1,500,000 in conjunction with the Pacific Explorer Show in Sydney. Until a few years ago it held the record for Australia's biggest ever stamp auction. As usual for a major international show we had a large stand and had good sales as well as the auction. In 2005 we also purchased a 20% share in Australia's largest art auction house, Bonhams & Goodman. We believed London based Bonhams would want to expand in Australia and NZ, and by linking up with Tim Goodman we were strategically placed. Alas it did not work out that way. Subsequently we were to find, as many NZ businesses' have, how difficult it is to succeed in Australia.

Another staff appointment in 2005 was David Heather as our Chief Financial Officer, and Director. Our international auctions achieved $1.037m sales that year, making a total of NZ$26m in auction sales of stamps in NZ from 1974.

The 2006 Washington International Show will go down as one of the greatest stamp exhibitions, superbly organized in a wonderful city. Again we had a large stand and were the only NZ dealer to do so. Many clients met at that exhibition are still with us today. I recall meeting Frank, a bachelor, who told me his house was full of stamps, so he had bought the house next door to live in!

A national exhibition 'Kiwipex" was held in Christchurch, and as Alan Jackson was now back in Christchurch we had a stand. It was there that another extraordinary deal was started. A local collector came to the show and stood patiently by my stand as I talked to a client. Eventually this most unassuming man got my attention and described his collection of 900 albums catalogued at $7m which he wished to sell. Alan Jackson and I travelled to Ashburton to inspect the collection. After a most enjoyable morning tea provided by the vendor's sister who lived next door, we were taken to the large garage and into the office at the back. There were stamps everywhere but no albums. My heart sank. Then the owner walked to an untidy bookcase and pressed a button to expose a hidden door. Through we went into a narrow shelved area with 900 albums. As a joiner he had constructed this so that if anyone broke into his garage they would never find the stamps! It was an all world collection with every page catalogued according to Stanley Gibbons. We selected 60 albums at random and cross checked the values, every page was correct! We stopped after 90 minutes, asked him his price, and five minutes later shook hands on the deal. Alan took them back to Christchurch the collection was put into secure storage. Alan worked away and five years later all 900 volumes had been sold through our auctions. I am certain I will never see a collection like it again.

Arna dal Din joined us part-time, assisting Malcolm Turner and doing general office duties. Within a year she was working for us full-time.

With all the stock we had purchased, in 2006 we added a mezzanine floor to our Otaki offices, we needed space!

2007 saw the license to use the Stanley Gibbons name in Australia expire, so we changed the name to Mowbrays Australia, as we had done so successfully with John Mowbray International in NZ. Sadly in that year Bruno Kohler, a long time employee and loyal friend passed away. He had contributed much especially with his understanding of the USA market where he used to deal part-time before moving to NZ.

Len Moss & John at Tarapex 2008

2008 saw the Tarapex exhibition and Jan Macdonald and myself went to New Plymouth with a large amount of stock. Sales were successful but I got a big surprise when a key first employee, Len Moss, now 100 years old came to the exhibition. He still had some stamps to sell and it was wonderful to catch up with him. I told Len he had to be the world's oldest stamp collector. Maybe he was, I will never know. Unfortunately Len died later that year.

Dr Ken Markham joined our staff that year and Mowbray Collectables reported we were the largest stamp auction business in Australasia.

1949 3d HMS Vanguard sold for $31,050 in 2009

In 2009 Mowbray Australia auctioned the only known 1874 Balloon Post from the siege of Paris, addressed to Australia. Estimated at $50,000 it sold for $160,000 (NZ $238,625) to Pascal Behr the famous French dealer who flew out to the sale specially to secure it. In NZ we were not to be outdone, reporting total stamp sales that year of $2.6m of which 62% was exported. Amongst good sales was a 1949 3d HMS Vanguard for $31,050 and an 1882 NZ Queen Victoria Long Type set of 14 (25/- to £10) all mint for $46,165.

In New York, famous collector Joseph Hackmey, perhaps the world's greatest ever collector, put up his NZ Chalons for auction. I attended this incredible sale and purchased NZ SG1, SG2, SG 3 on covers for a client. Perhaps the greatest sale ever of NZ Chalons, there would have been less than 20 people in the room. A remarkable experience, and I believe I was the only New Zealander present, although others bid live on the internet.

In November 2009 Bonhams & Goodman acquired Sotheby's Australia's largest art auction house and relinquished the licence to operate under Bonhams name. Our strategy of aligning with Bonhams in the UK was now abandoned.

Chelsea dal Din joined us part-time and impressed us with her youth and enthusiasm and today plays a key role in our coin department and provides photos/scans of the lots in our international auctions.

12/6d Queen Victoria Postal Fiscal sold for $44,850 in 2010

2010 saw us sell a 12/6d QV Long type mint cat £9,000 for $44,850 at our John Mowbray International auction. Sotheby's Australia sold a Qing Dynasty 100 Boy's vase for $480,000 (estimate $20,000!). After being with us since 2006 Arna dal Din was appointed manager of the House of Stamps, allowing Malcolm Turner to concentrate entirely on our growing coin department. Mowbrays Australia was sold to Danny Jurd, its long serving manager and it now trades as Velvet Collectables with Ivan Knox and Melissa Smith still on the staff.

When we invested in Webb's in 2004 we had the option at the end of 10 years to purchase the 51% of the company we did not own, so in 2013 with support from our shareholders providing a further $800,000 capital we invested $1.4m in Webb's to now own it 100%. We are proud to own NZ's premier art auction house and see it has an exciting future ahead. We could even have stamp and coin auctions there in the future. The Melbourne Stamp Exhibition was held in May 2013 and Chris Burtt, David Smitham and I had a busy time on our stand. Our Private Treaty list was a big success. I left the exhibition a day early to see my eldest son John, now 32, get married in Ireland, the first of our four children to wed.

The John Mowbray International Stamp Auction 2013 achieved a world record for a used NZ SG1. We sold a magnificent example for $25,330. Readers may recall we had sold this same stamp in 1990 for $10,700.

So we come to 2014, my 50th year of stamp dealing. In August we sold our 25% share of Sotheby's Australia, and our recent international coin and stamp sales achieved a total of $.1.m, another good sale. By the end of this year we expect to achieve a total of $50m sales of stamps from Otaki since 1974 of which $30m have been exported all over the world. This is something I never imagined could happen when I bought a quarter acre section and building all those years ago for $4,500 and achieved sales of $1,190 that first year. Today with our huge profile in NZ's busy Main Highway I look forward to many more years of dealing, auctioning our significant stock, and awaiting the next unexpected event, which has been the story of the past 50 years.

It's been a wonderful journey thanks to the huge support I have had from clients, staff, my wife Jane, also my four children (now adults) who at least tried to collect stamps. A special thank you to our business suppliers especially our printers, Graphic Press and NZ Post, and to my colleagues in the stamp dealing industry.
